

i use the satellite radio every where i travel, for it is available every where we go & it is in places that regular radio is not & i depend upon it to keep me informed where every i travel. so if you take away something that i pay for i do not think that is very fair.

i love my radio do not mess with what they can broad cast i need that info.

thank you